SMALL CITY, BIG OPPORTUNITIES:

RETAILER STRATEGIES, CUSTOMER INSIGHTS, AND GROWTH PLANS

Smaller cities in India are gaining retailers' attention. Stores ranging from 1,000 sq ft to 100,000 sq ft are opening in hypermarket, supermarket, and convenience store formats. Social media is filled with images and videos of these stores teeming with customers.

This session brings together retailers who have experimented with various formats to share valuable insights on small city markets. Learn how local customers respond to modern retail experiences and how retailers adapt store formats, categories, pricing, and promotions to meet their needs. Discover the ROI realities compared to metro and mini-metro stores, and hear about growth plans, investment strategies, and competitive dynamics between organized retailers and local grocers.

GROWING YOUR GROCERY BUSINESS: REACHING NEW CUSTOMERS, EXPANDING PRODUCT RANGE

India's grocery retailers face a thrilling opportunity: customers in semi-urban areas now demand premium FMCG products, driven by exposure to modern lifestyles. This shift has prompted suppliers to adapt to changing demand patterns.

Key Challenges:

- For Suppliers: How to reach sparse but growing markets and outpace competition?
- For Retailers: How to ensure customer loyalty and satisfy evolving needs?

Join roundtable to explore how brands and enablers are bridging the gap, helping suppliers and retailers:

- Expand product range and categories
- Enhance customer satisfaction and loyalty
- Tap into growing demand in semi-urban markets
- Leverage technology for efficient distribution and logistics

Discover strategies to thrive in this new retail landscape.
